

Behavioral Sciences and Human Services

June 7, 2013

To Whom It May Concern:

It is my honor to write this letter of recommendation at the request of Ms. Lakesha Lucas. I have known Lakesha for three years and emphatically, I can say that she has been one of the most wonderful young women at Bowie State University that I had the pleasure to know and to teach. From the very first time that I met Lakesha, she set herself apart from other students by strongly engaging in class dialogue, asking relevant questions to the subject matter, and creatively presenting class assignments. Consequently, she received good grades in several of my courses.

She has been exemplary in her leadership in the Child and Adolescent Studies (CAAS) program. On numerous occasions, I observed her lead meetings, resolve conflict, and respectfully take charge expecting nothing less than excellence from classmates when working on group projects. I have personally experienced Lakesha to be dependable, honest and sincere in the execution of many tasks before her.

More pointedly, Ms. Lucas is quite passionate about working with children, but especially working to empower adolescents. She is a scholar, a confident young woman, and an exemplary leader. I thoroughly enjoy being her professor and watching her develop professionally and personally.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions concerning the character or academic performance of Lakesha Lucas at kbarnett@bowiestate.edu, or x23116.

Respectfully Submitted,

Kim Barnett, Ph.D., Assistant Professor